ANSWER TO COMPLAINT

ANSWER TO COMPLAINT

Defendant The Denver Nuggets Limited Partnership (d/b/a the “Denver Nuggets” or the “Team”), by and through its undersigned attorneys, answer the Complaint of Plaintiffs Artist Publishing Group, LLC (d/b/a “APG”), a Delaware Limited Liability Company; Kasz Money, Inc., a New York Corporation; KMA Assets I LP, a Delaware Limited Partnership; KMA Assets II Limited, a United Kingdom Private Limited Company; Kobalt Music Publishing America, Inc. (d/b/a “KMPA”), a Delaware Corporation; MXM Music AB (d/b/a “MXM”), a Swedish Limited Liability Company; Notting Hill Music, Inc., a New York Corporation; and Prescription Songs, LLC, a California Limited Liability Company (collectively, “Plaintiffs”), dated July 19, 2024 [Dkt. 5] (the “Complaint”) as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. The allegations set forth in paragraph 1 of the Complaint characterize the Plaintiffs' Complaint, which speaks for itself. To the extent any allegations in this paragraph allege wrongdoing by the Denver Nuggets, such allegations are expressly denied.

PLAINTIFFS

2. The Denver Nuggets lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the truth of the allegations set forth in paragraph 2 of the Complaint, and on that basis deny those allegations.

3. The Denver Nuggets lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the truth of the allegations set forth in paragraph 3 of the Complaint, and on that basis deny those allegations.

4. The Denver Nuggets lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the truth of the allegations set forth in paragraph 4 of the Complaint, and on that basis deny those allegations.

5. The Denver Nuggets lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the truth of the allegations set forth in paragraph 5 of the Complaint, and on that basis deny those allegations.

6. The Denver Nuggets lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the truth of the allegations set forth in paragraph 6 of the Complaint, and on that basis deny those allegations.

7. The Denver Nuggets lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the truth of the allegations set forth in paragraph 7 of the Complaint, and on that basis deny those allegations.

8. The Denver Nuggets lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the truth of the allegations set forth in paragraph 8 of the Complaint, and on that basis deny those allegations.

DEFENDANTS

9. The Denver Nuggets admit that they are a Delaware Limited Partnership with their principal place of business in Denver, Colorado.

10. Plaintiffs' allegation that they "will seek leave to amend this complaint to allege the true names and capacities of these Defendants when the same have been ascertained" is not a proper factual allegation and does not require a response. With respect to the remaining allegations in paragraph 10, the Denver Nuggets lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the truth of the allegations set forth therein, and on that basis deny those allegations.

11. The Denver Nuggets deny the allegations set forth in paragraph 11 of the Complaint.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

12. Paragraph 12 of the Complaint contains legal conclusions to which no response is required.

13. The allegations in paragraph 13 of the Complaint regarding the conclusion that there is personal jurisdiction over Defendants state a legal conclusion to which no response is required. With respect to the allegations in paragraph 13 regarding the "home of all Plaintiffs' exclusive agent for the licensing of their copyrights," the Denver Nuggets lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the truth of those allegations and on that basis deny the same. Similarly, with respect to the allegations in paragraph 13 pertaining to parties other than the Denver Nuggets, the Denver Nuggets lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the truth of those allegations and on that basis deny the same. The Denver Nuggets deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 13 to the extent they pertain to the Team, and specifically deny the allegation of any wrongdoing or injury to Plaintiffs.

14. The allegations in paragraph 14 of the Complaint state a legal conclusion to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, the Denver Nuggets deny such allegations, especially as it pertains to any alleged injury to Plaintiffs.

17. The Denver Nuggets admit that they own the National Basketball Association (“NBA”) team known as the Denver Nuggets. The Denver Nuggets lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the truth of the allegations in paragraph 17 of the Complaint regarding whether they “operate” the NBA team known as the Denver Nuggets because they engage natural persons to operate the company and, on that basis, deny those allegations.¹

18. The Denver Nuggets admit that they administer accounts with Facebook, Instagram, X, YouTube, and TikTok, and that there is a page on the NBA.com website directed to the Team, which contains content relating to news, promotional videos, highlights, links to

The Denver Nuggets lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief about the truth of the remaining allegations in paragraph 20, and on that basis deny those allegations. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

41. WHEREFORE, the Denver Nuggets deny that any of the Plaintiffs are entitled to any relief whatsoever, including damages—either actual, with disgorgement, or statutory, including any injunctive or other equitable relief, attorneys’ fees and costs, and all other forms of relief sought in the “WHEREFORE” clause of the Complaint.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

42. Without assuming the burden of proof on any matters where that burden rests on Plaintiffs, the Denver Nuggets assert the following separate defenses to the Complaint:

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(Failure to State a Cause of Action)

43. Plaintiffs' causes of action are barred, in whole or in part, for failure to state a cause of action upon which relief may be granted.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(Statute of Limitations, 17 U.S.C. § 507)

44. Plaintiffs' causes of action are barred, in whole or in part, by the relevant statute of limitations because the Complaint was filed more than three years "after the claim accrued." 17 U.S.C. § 507.

45. A cause of action ordinarily accrues when a plaintiff has a complete and present cause of action. In other words, the limitations period generally begins to run at the point when the plaintiff can file suit and obtain relief. A copyright cause of action thus arises or accrues when an infringing act occurs. Petrella v. Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Inc., 572 U. S. 663, 670 (2014). This standard principle of law and statutory interpretation is called the "injury rule." Under the injury rule, Plaintiffs' causes of action are barred, in whole or in part, because the uses of music for which they complain occurred more than three years prior to the filing of the Complaint. There is no reason in law or fact to deviate from the injury rule in this case. See Warner Chappell Music, Inc. v. Nealy, 601 U.S. 366 (2024) (Gorsuch, J., dissenting).

46. Even if a different rule (e.g., the "discovery rule") were applied, Plaintiffs' causes of action would be barred, in whole or in part, because Plaintiffs either knew or should have known about the allegedly infringing uses more than three years prior to the filing of the Complaint.

Plaintiffs, through their agents, first gave notice that they were aware of accused uses of music on April 21, 2021 (the “First Notice Date”), which is more than three years prior to the filing of the Complaint.

47. Subsequently, it has been revealed that Plaintiffs, through their agents, employed software programs to search the Internet for uses of music, and those programs created a database of accused uses (the “Archive”). On information and belief, the Archive identified uses which are the subject of this Complaint long before the First Notice Date. Despite numerous requests, Plaintiffs have refused to produce the Archive, or respond to queries about the date of creation of the Archive, when Plaintiffs and/or their agents first became aware of these alleged infringements, or when Plaintiffs engaged agents and/or software programs to search for potential infringements. Nonetheless, because Plaintiffs, through their agents, had all of the information necessary to file suit and obtain relief more than three years prior to the filing of the Complaint, their causes of action are barred, in whole or in part, by the statute of limitations.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(Copyright Misuse)

48. Plaintiffs’ causes of action are barred, in whole or in part, because they engaged in copyright misuse. Among other things, Plaintiffs attempted to leverage their copyright registrations along with threats of attorneys’ fees in order to extort from the Team disproportionate payments for allegedly infringing uses. At the same time, Plaintiffs refused to provide the Denver Nuggets with the data revealing the totality of the music the Team allegedly infringed.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(Implied License)

49. Plaintiffs’ causes of action are barred, in whole or in part, because the Denver Nuggets possessed an implied license to use Plaintiffs’ alleged copyrighted works.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(Fair Use, 17 U.S.C. § 107)

50. Plaintiffs' causes of action are barred, in whole or in part, because any use the Denver Nuggets made of Plaintiffs' copyrighted work was a fair use.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(First Amendment)

51. Plaintiffs' causes of action are barred, in whole or in part, because the Denver Nuggets' alleged conduct is protected by the First Amendment of the United States Constitution and applicable state constitutions.

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(Acquiescence)

52. Plaintiffs' causes of action are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of acquiescence.

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(Waiver and Estoppel)

53. Plaintiffs' causes of action are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrines of waiver and estoppel.

NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(Laches)

54. Plaintiffs' claims for equitable relief are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of laches.

55. The Denver Nuggets reserve the right to add, alter, and/or amend their Answer and their defenses as may later become available and apparent to them, and to withdraw any defenses that they determine to be inapplicable.
